Biographical / Historical

The Honorable Justice Judith Ann Lanzinger is the first person to serve as a judge on every level of the court system in the state of Ohio. She graduated from the University of Toledo in 1968, receiving her bachelor's degree in education and English and the University of Toledo:

College of Law in 1977, graduating as the Valedictorian of her class. After receiving her Juris Doctorate, Lanzinger practiced law for Toledo Edison and then as an Associate at Shumaker, Loop and Kendrick law firm.

In 1985, she was elected onto the Toledo Municipal Court. She volunteered to become Toledo's first Housing Judge in 1988 and helped start the Housing Court. After two years, she became a Judge for the Lucas County Court of Common Pleas, serving from 1988 to 2002. During her 14-year tenure for the Court of Common Pleas, she presided over more than 250 jury trials, heard 12 death penalty cases, and wrote over 1,000 opinions--170 published.

In 1990, Lanzinger joined the faculty of the National Judicial College, teaching courses on trial practice and winning an Award of Distinction from the College. In 1992, she obtained a Master's degree in Judicial Studies from The University of Nevada-Reno and was the second woman in the US to earn a graduate degree in the field.

In 2002, Lanzinger ran for and won the position of Judge in the Ohio Sixth District Court of Appeals. She resided in this position for two years until 2004 when she was elected onto the Supreme Court of Ohio. Now Justice Judith A. Lanzinger, she served on the Supreme Court of Ohio for twelve years until she retired in 2016.

Lanzinger has long held a love of writing. She began a blog, justicejudy.blogspot.com, in 2010 to share, in her words, "simple, straightforward explanations of judicial concepts" with the public. She also taught courses on poetry for the National Judicial College. In 2012, Lanzinger chaired the committee that published the first Supreme Court Writing Manual for the state of Ohio – guidelines for writing court opinions.

Her successful career was marked by a number of awards which include:

- 1985: "Superior Judicial Service" Award, Ohio Supreme Court
- 1988: "Women of Toledo" honoree named by St. Vincent Medical Auxiliary
- 1988-1989: "Hall of Excellence" award, Ohio Foundation of Independent Colleges
- 1990-1992: Scholarships, National Judicial College to pursue Master in Judicial Studies
- 1994: "Order of the Heel" Toledo Junior Bar
- 1995: Arabella Mansfield Award, Toledo Women's Bar Association
- 2002: Award for Service to Judicial Education presented by Ohio Judicial College
- 2003: Award for Service, Common Pleas Judges Association
- 2011: Named to the Women's Bar Foundation Leadership Institute

Lanzinger was also a member of organizations such as The Toledo Bar Association, The Toledo Civil Service Commission, Ohio Judicial College and The Ohio State Bar Association. She served as president of the Morrison R. Waite American Inn of Court, which mentors young lawyers.

In 2006, she wrote the decision in State vs. Foster that struck down portions of Ohio's so-called "truth in sentencing" law, a decision that affected hundreds of sentencing cases. The decision preserved judicial discretion in sentencing decisions.

She also wrote the 2014 decision requiring police to first obtain a warrant before searching through a suspect's cell phone.

Justice Lanzinger also has taken particular interest in cases involving home rule, the constitutional authority for local government self-rule.

She wrote the first decision upholding the authority of cities such as Toledo to operate automated red-light cameras.
